Evans Bay Yacht & Motor Boat Club's Latest News

Hi <<First Name>>, here is the latest news...

2016 AGM - Thursday 4 August: 1900hrs

Looking for an excuse not to mow the lawns?

The AGM has arrived!

Are you looking for an opportunity to make a difference, or simply an excuse not to mow the lawns?

We still need to fill the sub-committees which are vitality important roles to ensuring the successful running of EBYMBC.

A club is only as strong as it's volunteers, so please give some thought to putting your name forward to help out in some way. Many hands make light work and help with even the smallest of tasks makes a huge difference to the overall feeling around the club!

Winter Sailing & a Hurricane Warning!

I was hoping to write that the weather is looking perfect to allow us to get winter series racing in this Saturday afternoon before settling in to watch the Hurricanes blow through. Unfortunately it looks more likely that we are going to be watching a near hurricane blow through all afternoon before the Hurricanes run out onto the pitch at 1935hrs.

So hopefully the forecast will improve and it'll be great sailing and then we can watch the rugby. However, the Club will be open to watch the mighty Hurricanes make history no matter what the weather decides to do!

Mrs Marion Gibbons

It is with sadness that I advise that Marion Gibbons, the lovely wife of Life Member Neil Gibbons passed away on Sunday 17 July.

Marion was always a great supporter of Neil's activities at EBYMBC and we thank her immensely for her patience in allowing Neil to spend so much time at the Club!

Our thoughts are with Neil, his family and friends at this sad time.

From the Office...

Is this stuff yours? - Last chance!!!

Are either of these boats or any of this equipment yours? If it is please contact me in the office as soon as possible, either in person, via email, or on the phone at 939 4167.

If the items remain unclaimed on Friday 5 August they will be disposed of, so this is your absolute last chance!

See you all around the Club soon.

Cheers,
Rowdy.

Rio 2016

This year at Rio we have a local Wellington Sailor competing in the Finn Class. Many of you will know Josh Junior and we send our absolute best wishes to him in his quest for glory which starts next week (well the final stage of his quest which he has been dreaming of and working towards for nearly 20 years).

Check out this great article about JJ's chances on the Finn Class website here.

The first race for the Finn Class is scheduled for 4am NZT on Wednesday 10 August.

Crew Available

starling but have crewed on a Elliott 5.9, Noelex 22, a few 30ft keelers, crewed on a maxi (Steinlager 2) for 5 days and also done some racing in the old Americas cup boat. Can do any role although never been out on a trapeze. Keen to crew on any boat that needs a crew!

Currently not doing much as my boat is out of action and would like to fill my time so chances are I'm free most weekends :)

Thanks,

Ben

P.s I'm 15 in case age is important.

Rachel Owen

Hi I'm wanting to get back into sailing. I've casually crewed in Australia including some Wednesday racing at Cruising Yacht Club of Australia.

Here I was mainly grinder. I'm definitely a bit rusty but I'm enthusiastic and good at taking instructions. Hope to hear from you soon.

Who is it?!

No one wanted to guess... But I'll give you the answer anyway.

It is Black Mamba competing in the 2010 Winter Series. I believe the course involved rounding the White Lady at Point Jerningham and returning into the Bay. Rumour has that Daryl struggled to round the mark as the boat wanted to turn left and head towards Dockside for some reason?!
